DEMANDS OF YUGOSLAVIA FOR AUSTRIAN PROVINCE OF CARINTHIA CAUSE CONFUSION

Delicate Situation Created for Allies By Conflicting Actions of British Eighth Army and Tito's Partisans

By TOM OCHILTREE

The Allies faced a confused and delicate situation in the Austrian province of Carinthia today as a result of Yugoslav demands on that area.

In the provincial capital of Klagenfurt two distinct military administrations now are functioning. While the tension there is not as great as in Trieste, it is obvious that some agreement must be reached between the British Eighth Army and Marshal Tito's Partisans as to who will occupy the area.

Future Reich Is Discussed By Churchill

London, May 16—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill declared today that in general it was the Allied intention that "the Germans should administer their country in obedience to Allied direction."

The Allies have "no intention of undertaking the burden of administering Germany ourselves," Churchill asserted.

He appeared before commons against a background of demands in many quarters for the Allies to disclose the exact role of the regime of Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz. But the prime minister made no direct mention of Doenitz.

Weighing his words carefully, Churchill said he wanted time to answer one member's question as to what was "the authority which purported to broadcast from Flensburg in the name of the government alleged to be led by Admiral Doenitz."

"I am not sure whether any machinery of government, whether central or regional, can be said to exist at present in Germany and in any case I should prefer in replying to this question to speak of administration rather than government," Churchill said.

Just before going to commons, Churchill conferred with Gen. Eisenhower, Field Marshal Montgomery, and Gen. Omar Bradley.

Sweeping Reorganization Is Reported Planned By Truman

Washington, May 16—(AP)—President Truman plans a sweeping government reorganization to absorb independent agencies into regular departments.

Senators, who asked to be anonymous, made this disclosure of the president's plans today.

These senators, close to Mr. Truman when he served in the legislative branch, said the chief executive is moving slowly and that it may be weeks before the first steps become apparent.

The revisions will include cabinet changes, possibly in labor, treasury and justice.

One senator, especially acquainted with Mr. Truman, told this reporter: "The president always has believed that government should operate on a vertical basis. He is an old army man accustomed to a logical chain of command."

Independent agencies mushroomed in the depression years as the government stepped into new regulatory capacities.

There has been a growing demand in congress for established departments to take over the functions of these agencies, a demand in which Mr. Truman is said to be heartily in accord.

The principal upon which the president is said to base his program is to have one responsible head for each department, with supervisory and advisory duties spread out to a group of subordinate executives.

With four German submarines now in American hands, the navy today awaited word from an estimated 10 to 20 more fugitive or missing Nazi undersea raiders still sailing in Atlantic waters.

Naval officials predicted a deadline would be set for the boats to give up and that those found to run up the black flag of surrender would be hunted as pirates.

Allied patrols, the navy said, will shoot at sight if they encounter any submarine not flying the surrender flag.

The navy said its estimate of unaccounted submarines was based on the assumption that between 50 and 60 were prowling the Atlantic when Germany fell.

Nazi submarines reporting themselves west of a line running north and south through the Azores are being brought to this continent while those on the other side are being taken to Britain.

The supreme commander spoke briefly after comedian Sid Fields told the audience the two generals were there, and after spotlights had been turned on the box, Eisenhower bowed and waved repeatedly to the cheering audience.

"I wonder if you people realize what it means to me to be back here among friends," he said, and then drew laughter when he added "—among people whose language I can almost speak."

CARRIER HITS DESTROY 357 JAP PLANES

Nipponese Artillery Shells Shrike Overhead Prelude To Desperate Assault On Naha Sector

YANKS SHOVED BACK

By JAMES LINDSLEY

Guam, May 16—(AP)—United States Marines battle furiously on the edge of Naha, capital of Okinawa island, today after raking ground lost in the bloodiest Japanese counterattack of the offensive.

A British broadcast of a Reuters dispatch heard by CBS in New York said Naha had fallen to the Americans. There was no confirmation from U. S. headquarters.

The Japanese launched their counterattack around midnight Monday after a heavy artillery barrage, said Al Dopping, Associated Press war correspondent.

At dawn one 22nd marine regiment officer said "we've been fighting like maniacs since midnight." Dopping reported that before the battle was over one American company had only two men left out of 240. Another company had only eight survivors.

American headquarters said the marines not only beat back the Japanese but also drove the enemy into the interior of Takamotogi town with heavy losses.

Simultaneously, Fleet Adm. Chester W. Nimitz announced carrier plane raids destroyed or damaged 357 enemy aircraft and pounded 18 enemy airfields on the Japanese home islands of Honshu and Kyushu. Nimitz listed 176 aircraft destroyed, 108 either destroyed or damaged, and 73 machine-gunned without observed results.

Japanese artillery shells shrieked overhead as a prelude to the enemy's desperate attempt to drive marines out of the Naha sector, and a night and day battle raged wildly.

Marines of the veteran 22nd Regiment were shoved back 200 yards across a valley to the left of Naha before they rallied and turned the assault.

As the Japanese attack mounted in fury marine cooks, bakers and other rear echelon troops were thrown into the battle. Hand grenades flew about like baseballs, and the dead were strewn on both sides of the valley.

It was perhaps the most determined enemy attack of the Okinawa campaign and the emperor's soldiers for a time rode a bloody crest. Then the 22nd—veterans of Bataan and Iwo Jima—absorbed the shock and literally made a step-by-step advance. At least 400 enemy dead were counted by noon.

By afternoon following the night assault the marines had regained lost ground, but fighting still was furious around Sugar Loaf Hill, a strategic mound guarding approaches to Naha, the capital city.

The counterattack was a full scale attempt by the enemy to turn the tide of the campaign, in (Turn to Page Nine)

Frau Believes Himmler Died In Berlin Fight

By SID FEDER

Bolzano, Italy, May 16—(AP)—Frau Margaret Boden Himmler believes her husband, Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler, "was killed with the other Reich leaders such as Hitler in the fighting for Berlin."

Frau Himmler, her 15-year-old daughter, Gudrun, and her sister were found Sunday in a well-appointed mountain chalet about 15 miles north of Bolzano in the Italian Tyrol by members of the U. S. 88th Division.

Pale and sickly looking, Frau Himmler told the Associated Press yesterday her husband would be "better off dead—they're all better dead." She and her daughter referred to Himmler in the third person, as the "Reichsfuehrer," or simply as "Himmler."

The first question she asked when the Americans entered the chalet was: "Are we going to be killed?" When told she would be treated fairly she burst into tears, and sobbed that she was "thankful to be captured by Americans."

Capt. Erich Schiltzler, one of Himmler's three personal aides, who had accompanied Frau Himmler's party from Munich April 24, led the Americans up the narrow Alpine trail to the chalet, after having been picked up in the Bolzano headquarters of SS Gen. Karl Wolff.

European Theatre Becomes Great Source of Supply For U. S. Forces In the Pacific

Paris, May 16—(AP)—The gigantic task of preparing millions of tons of war material for quick shipment from Europe to the Pacific theatre fell today to the U. S. Army.

Brig. Gen. Morris W. Gillant, deputy chief of the staff for supply in the European theatre, whose organization must supervise the job, said V-E Day found the American armies with more than 5,500,000 tons of supplies on the continent.

It is a problem of rehabilitating, packing and shipping much of this material, which includes 700,000 tons of ammunition and more than a million separate items ranging from locomotives to watch repair tools.

The troops going directly to the Pacific will take all their equipment with them. Those going to the United States will carry only essential equipment, leaving the rest behind to be serviced and sent directly to the active war theater.

Gillant said the transfer of all war material no longer needed in Europe will be done as quickly as possible, with the major portion going by direct route. But these figures disclosed by Gillant indicate the immensity of the job.

The quartermaster corps must repair 94,000 pieces of clothing, the ordnance department must revamp 160,000 motor vehicles, the signal corps must work over 255,000 radios, the engineer corps 21,000 pieces of construction equipment, the chemical warfare division 2,000,000 gas masks and the medical corps 23,000 pieces of electro-medical equipment.

Gillant disclosed for the first time that the American armies in Europe have roughly 3,000,000 small arms, 11,000 medium and light artillery pieces, 350,000 automatic weapons and mortars, 62,000 combat vehicles, and 371,000 general purpose and special purpose vehicles among their equipment.

The bulk of all this will need some repairs, in addition to packing and weatherproofing.

Reconversion Survey Made By Auto Plants

Washington, May 16—(AP)—The automobile industry says it will need eight months after its war contracts are canceled to build enough passenger cars to make money. Its output then would be at a rate of 2,000,000 cars a year.

Reporting today on a reconversion survey of 72 major industries, the War Production Board said the auto makers figured 15 months as the period needed to hit full post-war stride—presumably 6,000,000 cars a year. This would be nearly 2,000,000 more than were turned out in any pre-war year.

All 72 of the industries consulted—now turning out war and essential civilian goods at a $14,000,000 annual clip, estimated their full-scale post-war output at about $10,000,000,000. To break even financially, WPB said, they will have to get production up to $5,200,000,000 annually.

For such a production rate, $36,348,000 worth of construction will be required for plant expansion and reconversion alterations, the survey showed, and for "all-out" production a total of $234,664,000.

CORPSE OF HITLER IS STILL BEING SOUGHT

Moscow, May 16—(AP)—The Russians continued today to examine closely the bodies of Na found in the underground city discovered in Berlin, but there was no official announcement that the corpse of either Hitler or his Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels had been identified.

Of six bodies found in the reichschancellery, four have been declared definitely as not being the fuhrer. A meticulous recheck is taking place on the other two.

Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force, May 16—(AP)—Maj. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, Gen. Eisenhower's deputy for the military occupation of Germany, declared today that "the Allied government in Germany is going to be military and the Germans are going to know its going to be military."

"The United States is going to stay in Germany in all probability for a long time," Gen. Clay said. He explained carefully that Supreme Headquarters Allied Expeditionary Force still is operative and that he was speaking for the U. S. group council which will take over after SHAEF finishes.

Clay said these would be the initial aims of the American occupation:

1. Smash all that is left of Germany's potential to make war.

2. Smash all vestiges of Nazism.

3. See that all war criminals are caught and punished.

To Ration Smokes In U. S. Army Posts

Washington, May 16—(AP)—Cigarettes, cigars and smoking tobacco will be rationed at army posts and prisoner of war camps in this country effective June 3, it was disclosed today.

Military personnel, their dependents and authorized civilian employees will be permitted to purchase six packages of cigarettes, 24 cigars or four ounces of smoking tobacco per week. Ration cards will be issued to all eligible.

Members of Italian service units will be limited to one-half the amount allowed military personnel while prisoners of war may purchase only two ounces of smoking tobacco per week. They will not be permitted to buy cigarettes or cigars.

The ration plan will be supervised by the chief of the Army Exchange Service and will be in effect at all sales outlets at the posts or camps.

LIBERATION OF MINDANAO PROGRESSING

Gen. MacArthur Says 95 Per Cent of Population, Exceeding 400,000, Is Freed From Japs

HAND-TO-HAND BATTLES

By DEAN SCHEDLER

Manila, May 16—(AP)—Trapped Japanese troops fought a savage hand-to-hand battle today with Americans of the 24th Infantry west of Davao City on Mindanao.

Maj. Gen. Roscoe B. Woodruff's battle-seasoned veterans attacked with knives, bayonets and even flaming fists as the struggle mounted in savage fury. The battle raged in 12-foot cogon grass in foothills between the Talomo and Davao rivers.

To the northwest, the 31st and 40th Infantry Divisions were punching a large enemy garrison in Bukidnon province, where the bulk of an estimated 50,000 Mindanao Japanese were believed fortifying hill positions.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced in today's communiqué that 90 per cent of Mindanao, second largest island in the Philippines, had been liberated. He also said 95 per cent of the population, probably exceeding 400,000, was freed from Japanese domination.

But the Japanese salient west of Davao resisted fiercely. Their retreat cut off, the Nipponese resorted to suicide attacks.

Yanks and Japanese fought with bayonets and knives, slugged with helmets and grappled like wrestlers. Some combatants rolled into a river, where at least two Yanks held the heads of adversaries under water until they were drowned.

On Luzon, the 43rd Division pressed to within 400 yards of Ipo dam east of Manila, source of one-third of the capital city's water.

In North Luzon, the 32nd Division destroyed 20 more enemy cave defenses in its drive toward Imugan town beyond newly-won Balete Pass.

The First Cavalry Division drove across the South Luzon coast to Dinanangan on the east shore, a section previously untouched by Yank troops.

Australian and Dutch troops on Tarakan island off the Borneo coast were pushing Japanese into the hills.

On northeast New Guinea, Sixth Division Australians cleared the northern portion of the Sauri villages.

WASTE PAPER GOES TO WAR: How Yesterday's Newspaper Becomes A Vital Weapon At The Battle Front

AP Newsfeatures

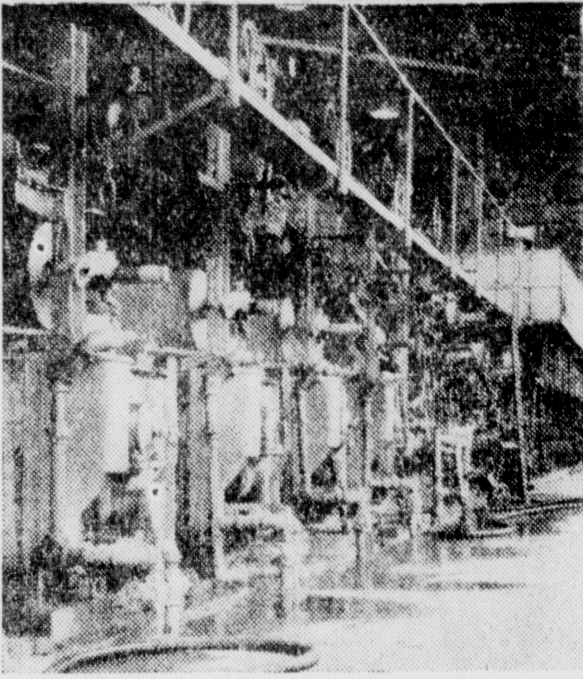

THE waste paper that goes overseas in the form of war supplies never returns, because it can't be salvaged at the front. Here is how the waste paper you save gets into the fight.

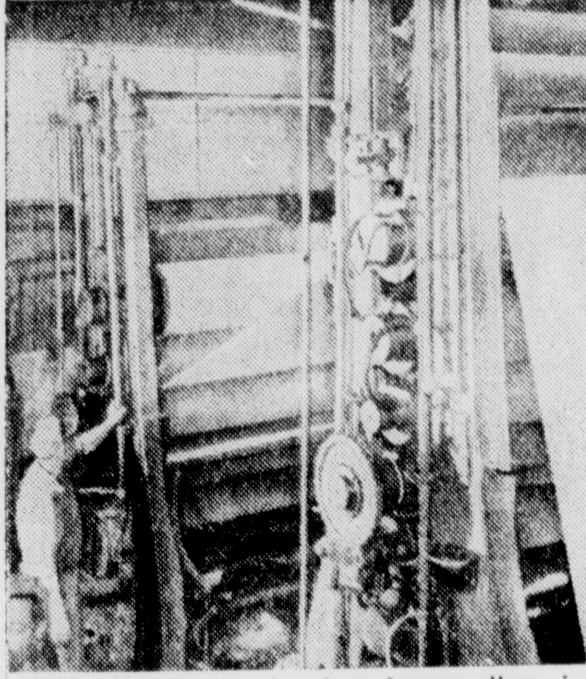

AMMUNITION IN THE RAW — First step toward the front.

PROCESSING BEGINS when paper is churned to a pulp in conversion plant heaters.

PULP is further cut and refined. Then it goes into these paperboard making machines.

PAPERBOARD, completed on large rollers, is ironed, smoothed and rolled on reels.

SPIRAL TUBING cut from paperboard will carry many necessities of war to the front.

AT WAR. These shell containers were once waste paper.

"Gum" Farnsworth, Park street rectory that 22 years ago last Friday evening he was snowbound in Brookston at the time and was driving home when the snow came and effectually plugged up the highway and he had to stop in Russell City all night and part of the next day until the roads were cleared out. . . . The other day we tried to give Ernie Johnson credit for making all those Red Cross kit bags that Ernie Anderson, 11 Madison street made. Well, yesterday Ernie made 'em. . . . Deb Lewis after spending some time at state college getting the low down on the habits, idiosyncrasies and pastimes of turkeys has installed 1200 of the poulters on the second floor of the big barn at the rear of his sausage foundry. Warren Phillips is acting as wet nurse for the birds and there has been few deaths in the big flock. Its no fool job raising turkeys and Deb hopes to bring through plenty for the folks who love to juggle a wishbone at the Thanksgiving table. . . . Warren members of the Coudersport Consistory are planning on attending the June reunion there to be held June 20, 21 and 22. George Todd is going in for homing pigeons in a big way and has a batch of the birds that were released at Union City last Friday evening and flew for home arriving here in no time. . . . George also is busy with a Victory Garden running largely to onions. . . .

Pete Linder busy with his saw mill getting out stove wood for the folks who are only going to get as much as 50% of the coal they got last year. Pete is going to be a regular life saver when the cold days of winter comes. . . . Gov. Martin may also forestall plans for a big V-J Day celebration by closing clubs and public liquor dispensaries. Liquor and beer spots it would probably be for their own protection. . . .

Seeds Welcome Gift in South Pacific

Gardens in which familiar flowers and vegetables are grown have become numerous at army posts throughout the South Pacific area, and have done much to combat homesickness among service men. A packet of seeds enclosed with a letter will be welcomed by any member of the armed forces, according to Lt. Col. K. E. Nordgren, who says: "While most combat units move rather rapidly, service units remain in one place sometimes one or two years, so there is plenty of opportunity for them to see things mature."

Gardens have especial value near hospitals, where convalescent patients can work in them, and obtain not only the benefits of sunshine and exercise, but also the mental relaxation which work with the soil affords. In the South Pacific climate seeds may be sown at any time of the year and most of our annual flowers and vegetables will thrive. Among the flowers are calliopsis, cosmos, calendula, cleome, gallardia, marigold, morning glory, nasturtium, petunia, portulaca, red salvia, snapdragon, verbena and zinnia.

While the tropical islands have an abundance of flowers such as we cannot grow, soldiers like to see the flowers with which they are familiar growing about their camps. All the tender vegetables which we grow are said to thrive in the Pacific. Sweet corn is in heavy demand, followed by lima beans, cucumbers, eggplant, leaf lettuce, musk and watermelons, mustard, okra, peppers, pumpkins, squash and tomatoes.

It is reported that some vegetable seeds are supplied by the army, but that flower seeds are not available except when sent from home, or obtained from Australia or New Zealand, both of which have extensive horticultural development.

Friendship Fund to Aid Scouts Abroad

Through their World Friendship Fund nearly 2,000,000 members of the Boy Scouts of America—as well as every friend of Scouting—will have an opportunity to further the cause of world brotherhood. Every Cub and Scout will contribute whatever he wishes to help reorganize Scouting in allied countries devastated by the war.

Newell, of the USO truck and Adjutant Brandenburg, of the Salvation Army provided movies and had intended to provide cookies and a soft drink for the boys on Bull Hill last night. However the Ration Board refused to provide sugar for the cookies so home made cookies had to be taken off the evening's program. As most of the guards at the camp are returned veterans it sorta looks like there must be a real sugar shortage. . . . Market for rabbits is a big one right now and the fellows who are raising them cannot keep up with the many orders they receive. . . . Louie Braunschweiger tells us that down in Florida the politicians have a hunch that Joe Guffey wants to be the next governor of Pennsylvania. . . . Pittsburgh papers were late in coming through this morning and the few Buffalo papers were sold out in no time. . . . ## Letters to the Editor

Editor, Times-Mirror, Warren, Pa.

Dear sir,

In the May 2nd issue of the Times-Mirror, under the sports column, "Behind The Lines", an appeal was made for contributions of used or new golf balls for the boys in our veterans' hospitals. Golf balls were specifically mentioned because these "wounded overseas veterans" are unable to participate in more strenuous sports.

Baseball equipment was also requested for the "Boys on Bull Hill" in order that they might "make good" on their challenge to other local teams during the present season.

All contributions were to be left at the "Vets Club." We regret to state, however, that to date there hasn't been a single response to this appeal. This doesn't sound like Warren.

The only item the Boys on Bull Hill really lacked and found impossible to get through their regular supply channels was six fielder's gloves and Dinsmoor-Schwung Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars is willing to pay any reasonable price for them.

It is only fitting that these boys should be welcomed into our community as warmly as we hope our own sons are being treated elsewhere.

How about it, folks?

A VET.

Youngsville Church Units Stage Banquet

Youngsville, May 15—A mother and daughter banquet was held in the U. B. church Friday evening with organization participating, the Woman's Missionary Association, the Hartford Circle, the Otterbein Guild and the World Friendship Circle. Each guest present scored a pink carnation. There were about 100 seated in the dining room. Tables were very pretty with baskets of tulips and nut cups in tulip design. A color scheme of purple, orchid and lavender was carried out in flowers, favors and other table decorations. A delicious dinner was enjoyed.

The general theme of the program was "Great Days to be Alive." Referring not only to the present but periods of the past. This thought was dramatized as follows: The persons representing the various characters had something to say about their period of life.

Martha Washington was represented by Miss Gladys Wilson; Clara Barton by Mrs. Gilbert Sanford; Mrs. Bihimer, the pioneer woman U. B. Missionary to Africa represented by Mrs. Goodwill Regina Bigler, one of the first women missionaries to go to China by Mrs. Jeanne McKinney. Mrs. Jeanne Conklin showed a piece quilt given to her mother and showed something of the lives of mothers in past generations. Miss Eva Goodwill, one of Guild girls showed an old Bible and told something of its history.

Lillian Nelson gave a beautiful courage to Mrs. McNitt, the oldest mother present at the banquet. The address of the evening was given by Mrs. Hunsberger of Pleasantville who used Ruth and Naomi, the Mother and daughter-in-law as her theme. Vocal numbers given included a trio by Miss Treva McKinney, Betty Brown and Mrs. Laura Thompson. Mrs. Thompson also sang a solo.

The closing feature of the evening was a little ceremony in connection with the transfer or promotion from one to another of members in the missionary groups.

The U. S. Navy is planning plane tests at 750 miles an hour in its new wind tunnels.

KANSAS WOMEN

Following the signing of the treaty with the Delaware and Shawnee Indians in 1854, settlers poured into Kansas. Women and children accompanied the men on steamboats on horseback, in prairie schooners and wagons. They went to make a home on a territory and courageously stayed to make permanent homes despite the bloody years of border warfare over the slavery issue. They were strong, purposeful women who foresaw the opportunity for prosperity and good homes for future generations. Kansas has a monument to them on the capital grounds at Topeka. Their grandsons battle for an unspooled future for all the Nation and War Bond funds equip them.

GHOSTS

In the wake of Allied victory a parade of ghostly names has passed across the pages of the world's newspapers. Daladier, Herriot, Blum and Reynaud, who piloted France through some stormy history; Gamelin and Weygand, remembered from the tragic hour of France's military collapse; Schuschnigg of Austria; Kallay of Hungary, and a son of the old regent, Horthy; the financier Schacht and one of the Thyssens of the Ruhr, Halder the German general staff and the brave Pastor Niemöller, bad Germans and good.

Forgotten in the swift course of events, their names call up again a remembrance of old conflicts and recriminations, of rival political gospels, of fears and hatreds and courage.

Reading those names, one wonders what happened to their bearers in the months and years when they were, in the truest sense, dead to the world? Or has their enforced time of solitude and contemplation worked some alchemic miracle which will resolve the old differences and send them back into the world richer in wisdom and more ready to advance the coming of what Wendell Willkie hopefully called One World?

WEARY CHILD NEEDS REST

The Medical Society of the State of Pennsylvania got off an excellent piece of advice to parents in its release on the "little man." It's the sort of thing we shouldn't allow to go in one ear and out the other. Here it is:

"He is overworked, overtired, overstrained. Our little man is 9 years old. He struggles to keep up with his school classes. His mother has him taking violin and dancing lessons. She has him entered in a children's action group.

"She is going to see to it that the refinements she missed will not be denied in him.

"What's the result?"

"The boy has no time to play. His days are over-organized.

"Fatigue in children often gains headway before it is recognized. Especially in the cities, where there is more need for rest than for recreation. When extra activities are added at the expense of health, they are not worth it.

"Many mothers seek to avoid the responsibility of taking care of a child by so fully engaging his time that he can't bother anyone in the household.

"Fatigue is often the cause of irritability, sleeplessness, crying.

"Rest is what a weary child needs."

PREFERRED CAPTORS

Nazi strategy in the closing days of belligerency seems to have clarified itself: the "government" under Admiral Doenitz was stalling to permit German troops to surrender to the Anglo-Americans before they were captured by the Russians.

This is proving embarrassing to us. The British and Americans were obliged to share captives 50-50, whoever took them, but the British say their facilities are packed—so can't we please keep more than half?

What we keep we have to feed. Is there still an unused notch in your belt?

Impatient backyard gardeners offer the same plaint about the "spring" rains that the department of highways sounded in relation to the winter snow: "Enough's enough. If there's one thing we don't need any more of, it's rain." And the forecaster predicts thunder showers!

New gas cook stoves will do away with kitchen odors. My gosh, they can't take the scent of corned beef and cabbage away from us—if we ever get the corned beef.

A little cooperation from the weatherman tomorrow afternoon will be greatly appreciated by a few thousand kiddies in Warren and vicinity.

The weather may have been to blame for the fact that there was no general observance of straw hat day in Warren yesterday.

The Dodgers seem to be giving the other seven teams in the National League the Bums' rush.

Dragonette Holds Much Of Interest

The High School Dragonette staff has seen many changes in the past school year, but the latest edition off the presses is evidence that Juliana Hannold and Jim Richards have been right on the job since their election as editors.

Its pages are crammed to the margins with such items as news about servicemen, club and group activities, faculty briefs, student biographies, notes on music, sports, personals, some interesting art and a generous padding of very passable jokes.

In all, a very creditable publication, the editors have had the assistance of the following in its preparation:

Manchukuo, Japanese puppet state is composed of the Chinese provinces of Fengtien, Kirin and Heilungkiang in Manchuria and Jehol in Inner Mongolia.

STATE GUARD FACTS

In most of the states, the guards have already seen service, the first active duty came during the summer of 1941, before we were at war. Mostly in connection with minor civil disturbance or natural disasters. But the Guards went through their test of fire in the hectic weeks and months after Dec. 7, 1941.

It was immediately apparent that the state and local police forces were inadequate to cope with the many security missions which the outbreak of the war brought. Federal troops preparing for action, were often unavailable, so the state guards were mobilized. They patrolled beaches, guarded bridges, reservoirs, railway yards, and important truck highways.

In many states Guards remained on active duty until late January and February 1942. In California State Guard troops remained on duty until the spring of 1943. In all about 14,000 guardsmen were on active duty after Pearl Harbor. The Pennsylvania State Guard was on active duty guarding bridges and during the floods at Honesdale and Port Allegheny, Pa. (Enlist in the Pennsylvania State Guard today).

Dr. Kippen Addresses Co. Medic Society

At the monthly meeting of the Warren County Medical Society, held yesterday afternoon at the YWCA activities building, Dr. Arnold A. Kippen, of the State Hospital staff, gave a very interesting description of a diagnostic procedure known as electro-encephalography.

He explained that the brain acts as a battery and waves are generated that can be recorded by use of an instrument that might be considered as a voltmeter. These waves act at different velocities, slow and fast, sharp and flat, as the brain is stimulated in sleep and unconsciousness, they are of one character; during convulsions, like those in epilepsy, they become rapid and spiked. In certain tumors of the brain they are of another kind.

Much work has been done on man and animals in developing this procedure, and Dr. Kippen showed a number of records taken at the State Hospital. Twenty-five members attended the meeting and dinner which followed, sponsored by Doctors J. E. Crane, Jane E. Dunaway, Albert Eberly and Paul Fago.

Youngsville Star Chapter Entertains Mothers-Daughter

Youngsville, May 16 The annual mother-daughter banquet of the Youngsville Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, was held in the dining room of the IOOF hall, where tables were attractively decorated with flowers and candles for a delicious tureen dinner.

Mrs. E. C. Anderson acted as toastmistress. The doxology was sung as grace to open the program on "Mothers and Daughters Around the World". The welcome was extended by Mrs. Helen Johnson, worthy matron, with the response by Millie Welch, one of the daughters present.

A glimpse of an Irish mother was given through the singing of "Mother Machree" by Evelyn Henry, followed by American home life seen in a graceful dance, "Jack Frost", given by Mary Ellen Cable, and a daughter's opinion of her mother, given in rhyme by Marie Johnson. A little playlet on mother, called "The Happy Little Rich Girl", portrayed the best in Japanese life in a true family scene between a Japanese mother and daughter. This was given by Mrs. Vivian Smith and her daughter. The last scene was presented by Mrs. Orrie Maasz, with an African mother and child portraying some of the primitive customs of that island. The closing number was the singing of "Mother" by Lillie Wood, with the assembly joining in the chorus.

Following the program, the regular chapter meeting was held in the lodge room.

The meeting of the County and Community PTA Councils in the Y. W. C. A. was attended by about 50 members and guests. The councils combined for the devotional period, luncheon and the afternoon program, but held separate business sessions.

The morning period opened with devotions led by Mrs. Walter Mathyer, president of the Community Council. Following the transaction of business by both groups luncheon was served. Guests at the luncheon were Mrs. Carl Lundahl, Miss Mary Church, Mrs. Olive Archibald Huff, and John G. Rossman.

Main feature of the afternoon session was a highly informative talk by Superintendent Rossman. He discussed in some detail House Bill 568 and its effect on both teachers and school communities. The bill has passed both houses and at present awaits the governor's signature. Mr. Rossman stated that if it should become a law, it would be one of the most progressive steps ever made in the history of education in Pennsylvania.

Other features on the afternoon program included three vocal numbers by Patty Larson, accompanied by her teacher, Mrs. Betty Smith; a piano solo by Maxine Beebe, who also accompanied Mrs. Frances Bartholomew in two vocal numbers. The presentation of a charter to Mrs. William H. Wright, president of the East Street School P. T. A., was also made in the afternoon.

Officers for the year were installed at the close of the program. Mrs. Hugh McClellan, of Tiona, was reelected president of the County Council and Mrs. Walter Mathyer also reelected president of the Community Council.

Other county officers are Mrs. Harold Strain, vice-president; Mrs. Geraldine Brian, secretary; and Mrs. S. B. Caldwell, treasurer. Other members of the Warren Borough Community Council Executive Committee are Mrs. Walter Pearson, first vice-president; Mrs. Shannon Wilson, second vice-president; Mrs. Francis Kotmair, secretary; Mrs. W. M. Kahle, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. J. G. Smallman, treasurer.

The announcement was made that the Community Council would bring two Clare Tree Major plays to Warren next season, "Sara Crew" or "The Little Princess" will be presented in the Warren High School auditorium on October 6th and "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp", the second play, on February 11th. The Community Council also announced that it would sponsor an ice cream social and band concert during the summer.

Unless you have some underlying organic condition that requires consultation with your doctor, you may be free of your suffering from "monthly grumps". Thousands of girls and women have found blessed relief from periodic functional pains, cramps, headaches and nervousness in Chi-Ches-Ters Pills. Taken as directed, preferably two or three days before your time, they tend to relax the muscular contractions that cause distress. They contain no narcotics, nor habit-forming drugs. But Chi-Ches-Ters Pills do have an ingredient that helps to promote resistance and energy. So, ask your druggist for Chi-Ches-Ters Pills, and accept no substitute. Caution: Use only as directed.

Flowers For Coach and Cast Of The Players' Closing Production

Full houses greeted the production at the Woman's Club and the general opinion seemed to be that Coach Astrid Cowden and her all-star cast made the most of the many opportunities afforded them.

If the character parts seemed at times to steal the show, it was hard to draw the line between the serious and the comic. As is so often the case in real life, the dramatic moments sometimes became the funniest ones, and if "Three's a Family" isn't real life, then audiences from one end of the country to the other must all be wrong.

There were no tag ends brought in to provide comedy relief or a dramatic situation, every characterization fitting so perfectly into the whole that there was no impression of any part or parts which carried the play—all doing a remarkably fine part to give the lie to the title and prove that two's enough for this particular family.

P. S. It is indicated that business and pleasure will be combined for the annual meeting of the Warren Players the last week in May, but more of this later.

Help Try War Guilty

(From Page One)

Francis M. Shea, both of Washington.

Jackson's announcement, issued by the War Department, referred to the three as "experienced trial lawyers."

Donovan, a congressional Medal of Honor winner in World War I as leader of the famous "Fighting 68th", long was referred to as the "mystery man" of World War II. The title grew out of his extensive European travels in 1940-41 and the hush-hush air surrounding O. S. S.

Returning from one trip abroad in the summer of 1940, he said he had been looking into the technique of the Nazi fifth column. The following spring he visited England, the Balkans and the Near East. In July, 1941, President Roosevelt named Donovan coordinator of information bearing on the defense program. From there he took over O. S. S. Now 62, he was an assistant attorney general in the Coolidge administration.

Sgt. Hansen Tangles With Jet Fighters

Many friends of Sgt. Gail R. Hansen will be interested in the following dispatch, which has just arrived from an 8th Air Force bombing station in England:

After experiencing an attack by three Me 262 jet-propelled fighters, when Eighth Air Force heavy bombers struck at synthetic oil refineries at Nienhagen, Germany, on the third of March, Staff Sergeant Gail R. Hansen, 21-year-old B-17 Flying Fortress waist gunner from Warren, Pa., would rather take his chances with flak over than the Luftwaffe, which damaged practically every plane in his formation during the Nienhagen interception.

A veteran of more than 30 combat missions over Europe, the Warren airman has been awarded the Air Medal with five Oak Leaf Clusters for "meritorious achievement" during operations against the enemy. His 493rd Bomb Group, commanded by Colonel Robert B. Landry, of New Orleans, La., is a unit of the Third Air Division, the division cited by the President for its England to Africa shuttle bombing of Messerschmitt aircraft plants at Regensburg, Germany.

Sgt. Hansen was graduated from Warren High School in 1941, and before entering the service in September of 1943, was employed as a chemist by the National Forge and Ordnance Company, of Irvine, Pa. The son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hansen, 226 Canton St., Warren, the Fortress gunner received his wings at Kingman, Ariz., in March of 1944.

WAC Private Sees Purpose In Her Work

Pvt. J. M. Campbell, better known to her friends as "Peggy", will return Friday evening to Camp Myles Standish after spending a ten-day furlough with her mother, Mrs. Mary Vescia, 1406 Pennsylvania avenue, west.

Pvt. Campbell, interviewed on the third anniversary of the formation of the Women's Army Corps, is most enthusiastic about her work and exceptionally so about the type of boys she finds in her camp hospital.

"I took my basic training at Fort Des Moines, Iowa," she says, "and basic was plenty tough, but also fun. From there I was transferred to Boston and finally to Camp Myles Standish, an army hospital. Now I am down to business."

"You'll never know what a feeling it is when you can do something for a poor soldier to make him more comfortable. Believe me, you have to be near them and work with them to really understand just what they have gone through."

"Yes, I'll grant you, it makes your heart ache to see the different ones. Some with arms off, or legs, eyes or what have you. But, I'll give them credit, they really take it on the chin. They sure are a swell bunch of boys."

"So, how could we lose a war when we have such gallantry in our armed forces. May God Bless them and send them home safely to their loved ones."

FIRST LIEUTENANTS

Martin Christensen, formerly of North Warren and now residing in Salamanca, N. Y., has received word that his two sons, Chester A. and Kenneth, have both had promotions from second lieutenant to first lieutenant. Chester is serving with the 76th Fighter Squadron of the 23rd Fighter Group in China, and Kenneth is with the 41st Bomber Group in the Philippines.

Pvt. Edna Marie Matha, daughter of Mrs. Iva Matha, Pennsylvania avenue, east, has arrived from camp in Florida to spend a 15-day furlough. Before entering the WACs Pvt. Matha was employed at the New Process Co., and was active in the local Salvation Army Corps.

Mrs. W. F. Smith, of Pittsfield, received a Mother's Day cable from her son, Cpl. R. W. Smith from France. The cable also stated that he hoped to see her soon.
